Journal Entries:

The Court ascertained the case was set for today regarding scheduling of the preliminary hearing.

Mr. Govia advised the Court that due to the large amount of discovery; defense counsel is requesting a set over for the early part of March. All parties agree that the first week of March will work. Mr. Duke feels that two days should be sufficient. Ms. Smith agrees with the States assessment that their questioning will last for two days, and the defense will take an additional two and they will also need to factor in whether they would want to put on their own evidence to challenge probable cause.

The Court ordered the hearings for 12/15/25 and 12/16/25 were vacated and rescheduled for Status Conference on 3/2/2026 @ 11:00 am and Preliminary Hearing 3/3/2026 through 3/6/2026 @ 9 am.

Nothing further at this time. Court is in recess.
