Attorneys for Respondents

The Respondents move the Court pursuant to Idaho Appellate Rules 34(d) and 46 for a seven-day extension of the deadline to file Verified Answers and responses (making them due March 4, 2025), and request that the Petitioner's 14-day period to file a reply brief be shifted accordingly (until March 18, 2025). The Respondents request that oral argument not be delayed as a result of this extension. The Petitioner does not oppose this extension.

Good cause exists because lead counsel for the Respondents recently contracted an illness that prevents him from reviewing and revising the Respondents' filings in time to meet the current deadline. See Hurst Declaration. The Respondents believe the modest extension will assist the Court's review of this matter, while also leaving sufficient time between the conclusion of briefing and oral argument.

Pursuant to I.A.R. 34(d), an affidavit supporting the motion is attached.
