Intervenors-Respondents.

Oral argument is set for the above-entitled cases on September 29, 2022, at 9:00 A.M. in the Supreme Court Courtroom.

In accordance with I.C.A.R. 46a, the following shall govern video and audio recording, and cameras for this proceeding:

In the Supreme Court Courtroom:

In accordance with I.C.A.R. 46a (3) and (9), live coverage of this proceeding in the Supreme Court Courtroom shall be restricted to Idaho Public Television (IPTV) video and recording equipment. IPTV has voluntarily agreed to provide a video and audio feed to other media. No other video or audio recording equipment will be allowed in the courtroom.

IPTV shall not tape or record any conversations between counsel or counsel and a client. There shall be no broadcast, video or audio coverage or recording of conferences which occur in the Supreme Court building between attorneys and their clients or between co-counsel of a client. There shall be no audio/visual coverage of notes upon the counsel table.

In accordance with I.C.A.R. 45 and 46a still photography is allowed with the following restrictions:

Permission to utilize a still camera, including a cell phone camera, must be obtained at least one business day in advance of oral argument. The request for approval to photograph the court proceeding shall be filed with the Clerk of the Supreme Court in docket number 49615-2022, and should be in substantially the form attached to this Order. Only one still photographer shall be permitted in the courtroom, unless the Chief Justice allows additional cameras. Arrangements for pooling of still photography coverage must be made by the media organizations.

Pursuant to I.C.A.R. 46a(4), authorization to access the press box overlooking the courtroom must be obtained from the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, no later than one business day in advance of oral argument. Any request to use the press box shall be included in the request for approval to photograph the court proceeding.

The use of an electronic flash with any camera is prohibited.

No additional lighting will be allowed, and no camera should give audio or visual indication of whether it is or is not operating.

Still camera operators must remain in the area reserved for the general public and may not move around the courtroom or assume body positions inappropriate to a courtroom proceeding or otherwise distract from the court proceeding.

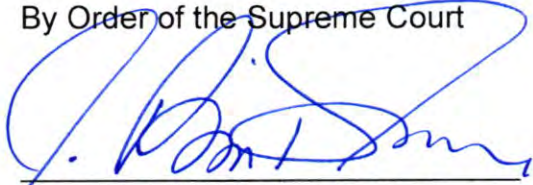

Other Areas of the Supreme Court Building:

No video, photographic, or audio recording will be allowed in other areas of the Supreme Court Building. However, in the event of inclement weather, video, photographic, and audio recording will be allowed in the first floor lobby of the Idaho Supreme Court Building.
