Order Re: Courtroom Decorum for August 3, 2022, Hearing

Supreme Court Docket No. 49817-2022

Pursuant to this Court's "Order Setting Hearing," dated June 30, 2022, the above-entitled matter, as well as the related case Supreme Court docket no. 49615-2022, Planned Parenthood v. State of Idaho, are set for a hearing on Wednesday, August 3, 2022, at 10:00 a.m. MDT, in the Idaho Supreme Court courtroom.

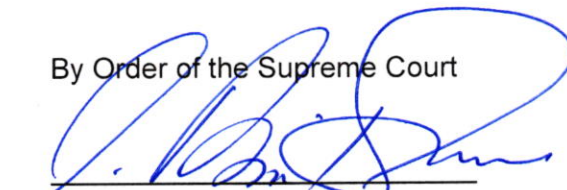

These matters have generated substantial public interest and media attention. In light of this interest, and pursuant to the Court's inherent authority to assure the proper administration of justice, the Court sets forth the following rules of conduct and guidelines designed to govern the expectations of the people involved and those attending so that the decorum of an open court is maintained throughout the proceedings.

Therefore, THIS COURT ORDERS AS FOLLOWS:

1. As previously announced on July 21, 2022, ticketed, reserved seating is required. As a result, only the parties, counsel, and persons with tickets will be admitted into the Supreme Court Building, and all such entry or other presence and conduct upon the grounds of the Supreme Court Building is specifically subject to this Court's May 20, 2021, "Order re: Idaho Supreme Court Grounds Security."
2. The use of any and all cameras, and recording devices during this proceeding is governed by this Court's July 7, 2022, "Order Governing Video, Recording and Cameras for Court Proceedings on August 3, 2022 – I.C.A.R. 46a."
3. All persons must be seated during the proceedings and must remain in the courtroom (except for emergencies) until the hearing is adjourned or a recess is called.
4. Electronic devices, such as laptops, tablets, and cell phones, will be permitted inside the courtroom, but all such devices must be turned off or in silent mode and may not be used to record the proceedings. Any device that rings, beeps, or makes other noise may be confiscated. Talking on a device in the courtroom is prohibited.
5. Interviews are not permitted in the courtroom.
6. Items which display a message or photo of any kind, including signs, buttons, or clothing are not permitted in the Supreme Court Building. Signage currently installed in the building to provide information to court users may remain posted. Attorneys for the parties and intervenors are permitted to bring written case-related documents that they wish to have with them during the proceedings.
7. Any disruptive activity or behavior is not permitted, and any person who disturbs the proceedings may be removed from the courtroom, Supreme Court Building, or Supreme Court grounds at any time at the discretion of court security personnel or at the direction of a Justice of the Supreme Court or the Administrative Director of Courts.

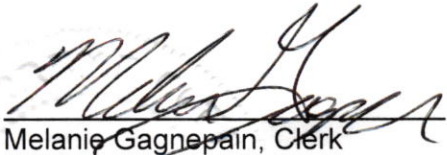

Dated August 1, 2022.

By Order of the Supreme Court

G. Richard Bevan, Chief Justice

ATTEST:

Melanie Gagnepain, Clerk
