ORDER UNSEALING JUNE 18, 2021 ORDERS

On June 18, 2021, the Court issued two Orders to Seal, which Orders themselves were sealed as well. Upon further review, the Court determines that I.C.A.R. 32(i)(1) does not require that the Orders to Seal be sealed, but the pleadings referenced in the orders shall remain sealed.

The Court, upon review of the State's June 18, 2021 Emergency Motion to Seal Second Declared Motion to Compel and Request for Sanctions, finds good cause has been shown to seal the referenced pleading, and the Court makes the following findings:

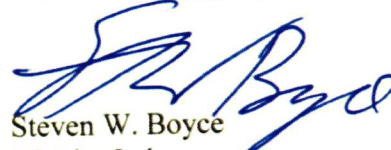

1. I.C.A.R. 32(i)(1) states that records may be temporarily or permanently sealed "if the court finds that doing so may be necessary to prevent harm to any person or persons." As stated in this rule, individual privacy interests are balanced with the public interest of disclosure.
2. I.C.A.R. 32(i)(2) requires that certain determinations must be made before records can be sealed by the Court. According to I.C.A.R. 32(i)(2)(A), records can be sealed if the Court determines that the documents or materials "contain highly intimate facts or statements, the publication of which would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person”, and I.C.A.R. 32(i)(2)(D) or allows sealing of records if “the documents or materials contain facts or statements that might threaten or endanger the life or safety of individuals.”

3. The Court finds that the State has made an adequate showing that the privacy interests and safety concerns referenced in its emergency motion outweigh the public interest of disclosure in the content of the Defendant’s June 18, 2021 Second Declared Motion to Compel and Request for Sanctions, and the State’s emergency response, and therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the June 18, 2021 Second Declared Motion to Compel and Request for Sanctions, and the State’s June 18, 2021 Emergency Motion to Seal Second Declared Motion to Compel and Request for Sanctions, will continue to be SEALED until further order of this Court. The Court’s June 18, 2021 Orders to Seal shall be UNSEALED.

Dated this 25 day of June, 2021.
